Dear Mrs. Louchheim:

In answer to your invitation, the Central Intelligence Agency welcomes the opportunity to submit for the 1966 Federal Woman's Award the nomination of [redacted] a senior intelligence research analyst who is known in the United States intelligence community as a highly competent specialist on Vietnam and Southeast Asia affairs. [redacted] career in this Agency has been exceptional, and I believe her contributions to national security efforts merit public recognition.

I am sure that the Board of Trustees will understand that security considerations surrounding many of [redacted] achievements limit the extent to which they can be substantiated in the enclosed document forwarded for the Board's review. Because of this limitation, I will ask one of our senior officials to brief the Board on [redacted] work during her fifteen years in this Agency if more detail is desired.

My thanks to you and to the members of the Board for continuing this most worthwhile awards program to honor distinguished women in the Federal Government. The CIA was indeed honored when [redacted] was named to receive the 1965 Federal Woman's Award. Although we regret that [redacted] is no longer with us, we were pleased that she was appointed by President Johnson as a member of the U. S. Tariff Commission.

Sincerely,

[(signed) W. F. Raborn]
